A Letter From Our Pastor

May 2, 2013

Dear Faithful Parishioners:

As Pastor, I invite you, representing your particular ministry and/or organization, to participate in the historic ministry of Perpetual Adoration for St. Peter's Catholic Church.

You are invited to attend, as a group, the 10:00 o'clock Mass on Sunday, June 2, 2013, the feast of the Body of Christ (Corpus Christi). Immediately after the Mass, we will have formal Benediction and then in procession with all the groups that you are representing and parishioners, we will process from the north side of the narthex of the Church and go in solemn procession through the parking lot with the Blessed Sacrament singing Eucharistic hymns. We will gather outside the Holy Spirit Perpetual Adoration Chapel and representatives chosen by the Adoration Committee will accompany the Blessed Sacrament for exposition.

We ask you to perpetuate Adoration throughout the future, especially inviting your members to spend an hour with the Lord Jesus. The parish will have two special intentions that we will ask that you always keep in mind with your visitation of the Blessed Sacrament. The first intention that we ask you is to remember vocations to the priesthood and religious life that will come from St. Peter's Parish community and the second intention is two-fold, for the health of our sick parishioners and for the return of our fallen away parishioners to come back to the Lord Jesus.

If you have any questions, please call our chairperson, Lucy Jones at 924-7401.

Thanking you for your cooperation and support in this wonderful Ministry and special occasion, I remain

Sincerely yours,

Msgr. John Coelho-Harguindeguy, Pastor

JCH/pm

— Weekly Reflection —

COME, LORD JESUS

The first reading today may seem somewhat out of place. Doesn't the "feast of Stephen" evoke memories of the Christmas season, rather than Easter? But it is most relevant for the days after the Ascension. Jesus Christ, the Son of Man, stands at his Father's right hand to welcome Stephen into heaven. Indeed, that is why Jesus has gone before us—to welcome us into God's house.

In the second reading the focus on heavenly reward continues: the new day coming with its hope and expectation. There is also an echo here of Advent, but it is now the fulfillment of those hopes, the resolution of all questions and difficulties.

John's Gospel today is part of the section known as the "high priestly prayer" of Jesus. It was his prayer at the Last Supper as he prepared for his roles as priest and victim. But it is also his prayer as the glorified and ascended high priest, the giver of glory, the center of faith, and the master of his destiny and ours.

VEN, SEÑOR JESÚS

La primera lectura de hoy puede parecer fuera de lugar. La "fiesta de Esteban" ¿no evoca recuerdos de Navidad más que de Pascua? Pero tiene más sentido después de la Ascensión. Jesucristo, el Hijo del Hombre, de pie a la derecha del Padre, da la bienvenida a Esteban en el cielo. Sin duda por eso Jesús nos precede –para darnos la bienvenida a la casa del Padre.

La segunda lectura continúa refiriéndose a premios celestiales: el nuevo día llega con sus esperanzas y sus expectativas. Resuena un eco aquí también, del Adviento, pero ahora sobre el cumplimiento de esas esperanzas, las respuestas a todas las interrogantes y las soluciones a todas las dificultades. El Adviento es sobre la "venida". La Iglesia ahora reza: "Ven, Señor Jesús". El Evangelio de Juan hoy es parte de la sección conocida como la "oración sacerdotal" de Jesús. Fue su oración en la Última Cena cuando se preparaba para su ministerio de sacerdote y de víctima. Pero es también su oración como sumo sacerdote glorificado y ascendido, dador de gloria, centro de la fe y maestro de su destino y del nuestro.
