— Weekly Reflection —

THE PRICE OF FREEDOM

Today’s readings promise that if we could escape from the shackles of our attachments we would be happier, freer, more peaceful. Luke’s Gospel begins, “When the days for Jesus’ being taken up were fulfilled, he resolutely determined to journey to Jerusalem.” Aware of the opposition and danger awaiting him, Jesus went forward.

Naturally, brave people volunteered to join him. But Jesus cautioned them. Could they give up their attachments to home and possessions, friends and family, conventional responsibilities? A tough challenge, but not unprecedented. Centuries before, Elijah had criticized Elisha for wanting time just to kiss his parents good-bye before following Elijah.

Just where would such a path take Elisha? Or Jesus’ followers? Or us? Paul tells us, “For freedom Christ set us free; so stand firm and do not submit again to the yoke of slavery.” The outcome is freedom, but if the requirements don’t give us pause, then maybe we’re not paying close enough attention.

Helping Children Grow in Faith

At Kingdom Rock Totally Catholic VBS, children don't just hear about God's love; they see it, touch it, taste it, and put it into action through God Sightings. As they travel from station to station, they go deeper into their understanding of God. Most importantly, children learn that because Jesus loves us, he came to teach us of His Father's love.

RESPUESTA PERSONAL DE FE

Después de pasar la Cuaresma, la Pascua y los días posteriores a esta fiesta, entramos de nuevo en el Tiempo Ordinario. Este año las lecturas del Evangelio son tomadas de san Lucas, comenzando hoy con una conversación con la que Jesús comienza su camino a Jerusalén—y a la cruz. Como seguidores suyos, procuramos marchar con él, incluso hasta la cruz.

La carta de Pablo a los galatas nos dice que nosotros los bautizados debemos "revestirnos" de Cristo. Al ser uno con Cristo, no debemos hacer discriminaciones de raza, nacionalidad, clases social o género.

El profeta Zacarías, muchos siglos antes de que nadie oyera hablar de Jesús, explicaba cómo el pueblo iba a rechazar el mensaje de Dios, encontrándolo incómodo, y se volverían contra los mensajeros. Sin embargo, luego la gente se daría cuenta de lo que habían hecho y se arrepentirían. Y Dios los acogería de nuevo, pues siempre nos concede la gracia para hacer lo correcto, sin importar lo difícil que sea.
