Dear Parishioners,

Mary Immaculate Queen School is celebrating National Catholic Schools Week beginning Sunday January 26, through Saturday February 1, 2014. The theme for this year is Catholic Schools: Communities of Faith, Knowledge, and Service. On this occasion, we recognize and appreciate the contribution of St. Peter Prince of the Apostles, our parish, towards promoting Catholic Education through MIQ School. We are proud of our pastors, parishioners, benefactors, friends, and community for their partnership in Catholic Education.

Mary Immaculate Queen School is 54 years old and it is a vibrant part of our wonderful St. Peter's Parish. We feel very fortunate to share our faith and the joy of being Jesus' followers with such a wonderful community of believers. We have been blessed with generous donors who are instrumental to start MIQ Scholarship Program. Though our enrollment this year has gone up, we still need more students in all grades to keep the school going.

Some of our families face great difficulties fulfilling the school tuition requirement due to the present economic situation. We want to keep the children in our school and give financial assistance to those in need especially because they are members of our own community. I ask you to consider sponsoring a student at our school for partial or full time tuition for the next academic year 2014-2015. No gift will be considered too small. Your generosity is very much appreciated. All donations will be tax deductible, and confidentiality is always guaranteed.

I take this opportunity to thank everyone very sincerely for their great support through the monthly collection donation and through the precious gift of your prayers. May the Lord bless and reward you a hundredfold.

Sr. Beena Joseph CSST

— Weekly Reflection —

DIVISION

It is a situation that plays itself out in more and less significant ways: Christians divided.

A CYO basketball game between two neighboring parishes. Parents of the young players scream insults and threats at one another and assert their “superiority.”

A Protestant and a Catholic church sit on adjoining properties. Each is vigilant about having parking violators removed from its own “private” parking lot.

An old pastor retires but continues to reside at the parish. A new pastor arrives and quickly finds his faith “community” choosing sides against him.

Saint Paul addresses similar disagreements in the early church at Corinth. He encourages the church there to make up their differences and to be united again in their belief and practice.

Today’s first reading from Isaiah speaks of a people weighed down by the yoke of sin and darkness. Certainly the bickering and differences among us can be classified as such. The Gospel tells of the beginning ministry of Jesus. The Light has come, encouraging us to “repent, for the kingdom of heaven is at hand.”

Perpetual Eucharistic Adoration

The Holy Spirit Perpetual Adoration Chapel has been offering parishioners the opportunity to spend time with the Blessed Sacrament for almost seven months - Thank you, Lord Jesus! When the Chapel officially opened on June 2, 2013, all parishioners were invited to participate in the special privilege of serving as an Adorer and Guardian in the Chapel. Jesus invites all parishioners of St. Peter, Prince of the Apostles Church, to spend one hour each week with Him in the Chapel; to date, less than 300 parishioners have answered His call.

What are YOU waiting for?

Please ask Jesus to open your heart to hear and answer His call for a weekly Holy Hour spent with Him. Won't you give it a try? You won't know the blessings you are missing until you let Him touch you in a special way through a weekly Holy Hour. Ask any Guardian about their time with the Blessed Sacrament to find out – you have nothing to lose but SO MUCH to gain!

The Blessed Sacrament is in need of Guardians for the following hours:

Monday, 2 a.m.—Currently No Guardian

10 Sunday Hours need a second Guardian

8 Saturday Hours need a second Guardian

Other Hours needing second guardians on specific days are:

10 p.m., 11 p.m., 12 midnight, 1 a.m.,
2 a.m., 3 a.m., and 4 a.m.

Contact Lucy Jones, 924-7401, for information and/or to sign on as a weekly Adorer/Guardian! What a great way to start the New Year!
