Mission Statement

Twenty-eighth Sunday in Ordinary Time—October 13, 2013

If we have died with [Christ Jesus] we shall also live with him;
if we persevere we shall also reign with him.

— Weekly Reflection —

THE WORD OF GOD UNCHAINED

There is no chaining the word of God! But how many times do we attempt to do that very thing? Had the followers of Jesus or the teachers of the law or the Pharisees been asked if the lepers should be cleansed or healed, the answer would most likely have been, “No, they deserve their condition.”

The lepers would have been, perhaps, a mixed group, Galileans and Samaritans alike, the bond of their awful disease overcoming the pettiness of former religious bickering. Jesus’ actions once again illustrate his vocation and ours: to reach out when healing is needed, to challenge when conversion is needed, to console when comfort is needed. He also follows his own advice from last week’s Gospel: do what you have been commanded to do. When the cleansed Samaritan has returned to give thanks, Jesus does not take it as an opportunity for self-aggrandizement, but rather offers insight into faith.

DESECADENA LA PALABRA DE DIOS

¡La Palabra de Dios no se puede encadenar! Pero, ¿cuántas veces tratamos de hacer eso precisamente? Si les hubiesen preguntado a los maestros de la Ley o a los fariseos si los leprosos debían ser curados, la respuesta muy probablemente habría sido: "No, ellos se merecen su condición".

Los leprosos habrían sido, quizá, un grupo mixto: Tanto galileos como samaritanos, las ataduras de su terrible enfermedad habría superado la pequeñez de antiguas rivalidades religiosas. La acción de Jesús de nuevo ilustra su vocación y la nuestra: ayudar cuando alguien necesita ser curado, retar cuando una conversión es necesaria, consolar cuando se necesita consuelo. Él también sigue su propio consejo del Evangelio de la semana pasada: hacer lo que se te ordena. Cuando el samaritano curado regresa a dar gracias, Jesús no aprovecha la oportunidad para vanagloriarse sino más bien ofrece una reflexión sobre la fe. Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.
