— Weekly Reflection —

LIVING GOD'S COMMANDS

The first reading forms part of Moses' farewell discourse, a call to the people to return to God. It is not a legalistic summons; rather, it is an appeal to heart and soul. It outlines a command that is not impossible to follow, or too difficult to undertake, or too expensive. Look into your hearts, says Moses; there you will find what to do.

Paul sees Jesus Christ as the image of God, the agent of creation and preservation. We sense, in his words, things profound: "dominions or principalities or powers." But in the midst of that, Paul keeps his attention on Jesus Christ, head of the church. It is in Christ that we find fullness and reconciliation—in the blood of the cross.

Luke's Gospel illustrates the double commandment of love with the story of the Good Samaritan. The story is a radical one, for it comes to focus on the question of who my "neighbor" is. That neighbor is not identified with any group, but rather by the scope of our compassion. Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

Learn to Pray; Learn to Live

Live the fulfillment of the Easter joy. Deepening of our prayer life takes us closer and closer to our Lord, strengthen or give new life to the way you pray, learn how at the Prayer and Life Workshop that will begin Thursday, August 1st at 7:00 p.m. in St. Agnes’ Room. The workshop consists of 15 weekly sessions and is the Inspiration of Fr. Ignacio Larranaga. For more information, call 772-2447.

Catholic Professional and Business Club

The Catholic Church of Visalia is establishing a Catholic Professional and Business Breakfast Club here in the Tulare/Kings Deanery. The purpose of a Club such as this is to provide an opportunity for Catholic professionals and business people to meet one another and discover ways in which we can be successful business professionals and faithful Catholics at the same time. It also provides a chance to network with Catholic business people in the two-county area to help create a better business climate. The inaugural meeting of the Catholic Professional and Business Club will be Friday, October 11th at 7 a.m. at the Holiday Inn in Visalia. Our featured guest-speaker for this breakfast will be the Most Rev. Armando X. Ochoa, Bishop of the Diocese of Fresno. Contact Deacon Joe for more information.

Thank You

A big Thank You to Sr. Danielle at St. Anthony Retreat House in Three Rivers during the Legion of Mary Retreat. The Legion of Mary active and auxiliary members from Chowchilla to Ridgecrest (South San Joaquin Valley Curia) would like to thank her for a very wonderful and blessed day. We needed those reflections very badly. "The Dynamics of the Spiritual Life with Mary as our Teacher" was very informative and educational for all of us. Our sisters in Bakersfield and Ridgecrest were so spiritually fulfilled that they asked to be booked already for next year. We assured them that we will do so as soon as we meet on our next Curia meeting. A deserving "big thank you" also goes to Msgr. John Griesbeck & Fr. Rod who heard our confessions. Msgr. John celebrated the Vigil Mass for Sunday before our departure.

Altar Society Thank You

The Altar Society would like to extend a thank you to Gene Murphy for his help during the 20th Annual Tulare-Kings Deanery Luncheon.

Helping Children Grow in Faith

At Kingdom Rock Totally Catholic VBS, children don't just hear about God's love; they see it, touch it, taste it, and put it into action through God Sightings. As they travel from station to station, they go deeper into their understanding of God. Most importantly, children learn that because Jesus loves us, he came to teach us of His Father's love.
